The academic curriculum vitae, or CV, is a document that encapsulates your academic career. It is a statement of your academic accomplishments in a straightforward format that future employers can scan quickly to determine if you are best candidate for a particular job. A well-written academic curriculum vitae should also highlight your specific background, your individual achievements, group achievements, and even your future aspirations.

Differences Between a Résumé and Curriculum Vitae (CV)
Résumés and CVs, in the United States, are similar but not necessarily interchangeable. Resumes are 1-2 page shorthand documents containing relevant information, whereas CVs are exhaustive, a bit more autobiographical, and can be very, very long. ... University of Massachusetts Amherst ...
