It's not the most solid of aspirations. Technically speaking I am already a man, if legalities don't prove it, there are certain body parts that do, and (I pray) that is not going to change any time soon. The basis of this entire blog is therefore fundamental flawed. It would be far better to entitle...

Answer: The world offers conflicting views of what being a man is all about. Some say that being a man requires grit, square-jawed determination, a working knowledge of weaponry, and, preferably, rock-solid abs. Others say that manliness is about getting in touch with one's feelings, caring for the less fortunate, and being sensitive.
